On board

Irvine-based South County Outreach has added five people to its board of directors. They will serve three-year terms through Dec. 31, 2026. The appointments include Andrew Cummings, an attorney at Holland & Knight; Annie Gregory, a senior manager in Deloitte's Audit & Assurance Services practice; Kourtney Harrison, communications director with the Church of the Latter-day Saints in Laguna Niguel; Liz Jergensen, a JustServe specialist in Laguna Niguel; and Caroline Wong, director of communications and custom content for Southern California News Group.

Santa Ana-based Beyond Blindness has made nine appointments to its board of directors and Ophthalmic Advisory Board. The board expansions are part of the nonprofit's growth goal to serve 2,680 individuals by 2027. With terms beginning July 1, appointees include Michele Allegretto with Glaukos; Yvette Lavery, First 5 Orange County; Kristin McKay, Project Alive; Hemant Mistry, Capital Group; and Adelaine Sin, Experian Mortgage. Ophthalmic Advisory Board members appointed for 2-year terms include Rex Chandler, Staar Surgical; Eric Garner, OSRX; Melissa Moncrief, Johnson & Johnson Surgical Vision; and Dianne Whitfield, Tarsus Pharmaceuticals.
