

THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

Crime Investigative Reporting Election Business Housing Politics Environment Weather

BUSINESS > RETAIL • News

Status Update: Palette Dim Sum coming to Tustin Market Place

The restaurant, owned by Palette Tea House Group in San Francisco, is the first for the company in Southern California.

By SAMANTHA GOWEN | sgowen@scng.com | Orange County Register
PUBLISHED: March 10, 2025 at 8:55 AM PDT

Beyond Blindness recipient of $780K in grants

Several organizations have contributed $780,000 in grants to the nonprofit Beyond Blindness in Santa Ana. The money will go toward the organization's programs for children with visual impairments and other disabilities and their families. Contributors include:

- Children and Youth Behavioral Health Initiative ($150,000 over two years)
- The Dean Family ($25,000) and Enterprise Bank ($5,000), Del E. Webb Foundation ($100,000) for playground renovation
- Department of Developmental Services ($250,000)
- Dhont Family Foundation ($120,000), playground project and supportive services
- HealthCare Foundation for Orange County ($15,000)
- Pacific Life Foundation ($100,000) for new Head Start partnership and another $15,000 for year-round programs